Creative Hub

Description

Creative Hub

The Landor Creative Hub was born from the demands, needs and request for the sharing of ideas to bring to market new products, or applications. With a wide resource of developers, printers, designers, and artists, our Creative Hub is intended to be a Hub and a resource for anyone looking for a creative advantage, or a vision to develop and perhaps requiring a missing link in order to transfer their idea or their vision into reality. If you have an creative idea that you would like to develop we would like to help.

Based in Fleet Hampshire, and in Bolton Lancashire, we welcome our doors to designers, creatives, marketeers, developers, printers and entrepreneurs to share ideas and use the vast web of resources we have and our business network enables us to tap into.
